VOLUME VIII.

ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1915

NUMBER 49

SPEAKER CLARK WILL BE HERE FRIDAY, OCTOBER FIRST

And Will Be Met by the United Democracy of the North and Northwest

With Other Distinguished Democrats Will Address Multitude at Auditorium

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1 IS THE DAY! as the result of the efforts of the Monroe Club, under whose auspices this great gathering of Democrats will be held. Some time ago it was decided that if Champ Clark could be called to vote upon the November, 1916, election.

The man of the hour is Speaker Champ Clark, the greatest Missourian now living and one of the best known best liked, best respected and most capable men in the United States.

He will be in St. Joseph that day and he will address the united Democracy of all the north and northwest part of this state who will be gathered here to listen to this great safe and sane orator and statesman.

And Stone and Reed

And there will not only be this great orator alone, but there will be other stars which shine bright in the Democratic firmament. That great exponent of Democratic principles, Senator William J. Stone, will be on the speakers' platform, and will tell the multitude the truth in his strikingly characteristic and forcible manner. And then Missouri's distinguished
